To Whom It May Concern:

It is our pleasure to write a personal letter of recommendation for Weddings of Romance. We worked with Weddings of Romance for approximately eight months and their work is extraordinary.

During the entire wedding planning process, Weddings of Romance proved repeatedly that their professionalism, honesty, guidance, customer service, sense of style, knowledge of the local vendor market and creativity is the pinnacle of what wedding planners should aspire to. The details of our wedding were vast and complicated and they made it feel easy and effortless. In the end, they left nothing to chance and thought of the ramifications of every nuance of our wedding.

Prior to our wedding, Weddings of Romance helped us prepare a wedding day timeline and wedding budget, create directions, invitations and menus, select vendors and music for the ceremony/reception, and most importantly negotiate contracts with vendors that saved us thousands of dollars. Specifically, they negotiated server and bartender costs with our Catering Manager who refused lowering his costs until they demanded to bring in their own servers for half the price. This example is just one of many in which Weddings of Romance not only saved us money but also our respect and dignity as a couple!

Finally, we would like to give a special thank you to Charla Halverson and Sarah Principe. Their help, guidance and support always grasped exactly what we were looking for and could not have been better. The specific details that they thought of prior to our wedding and the day of the wedding were above and beyond and we are truly grateful to them for making our vision of the perfect wedding become a reality.

Sincerely,

Deb and Bryan Abernathy
